Sixteenth Sunday Ordinary Time (A)

Well the School holidays are here again!
We have had a wonderful week in our school of St Mary's in Crescent Lane, as we have had concerts, celebrated a Mass and then a Graduation all to say goodbye to our Year 6 who have now left us and will go to their new secondary school after their holidays.

Let us pray for our young people - both in the primary and the secondary schools - that they may have a peace filled, joyful, relaxing and safe holiday.

The above prayer intention is my prayer for each and everyone of you heading off on your own holidays at this time. Feel free to send me a post card from all your holiday destinations!

Peace, Fr Richard Reid CSsR, Rector & Parish Priest.

Gift Aid

There are still a number of Gift Aid envelopes that have not been collected. If you haven't already done so, please collect them from the office.

Br Thomas CSsR – some of you will know that Br Thomas was recently in hospital for a few days however we are pleased to report that he is now out and back in St Peter's at the Oval. He is in good form within himself, but needs rest and relaxation! If you would like to visit him would you mention to one of the community.

A word of thanks to Kimberley who has done a tremendous amount of work trying to organize our Altar Servers. She has many other jobs to do in her life, but somehow manages to do this ministry.

Thank you so much.
