Fourteenth Week in Ordinary Time (B)

On Friday evening Bishop Patrick Lynch came among us and we celebrated the ceremony of "Induction of a Parish Priest".

So I can happily say that I am now formally your parish priest! During this ceremony I professed my faith and committed myself to help you grow and develop in your own faith and prayer life.

St Paul's words today are a strong and heart warming reminder to all of us, that we are all called to follow the Lord, but all of us are weak; however

St Paul tells us,
*"that when I am weak,
then I am strong."*

As the parish family let us re echo those words, that we can go forward together with real strength!

Peace,
Fr Richard CSsR PP

As advertised, this Sunday is the day when the Parish Pastoral Council asks you to think about what more you can do for the parish! There are many forms of ministry and work that need dedicated people to say, "Yes." If you are thinking, "I'd like to volunteer, but..." then think again of the words of St. Paul!
